4	0	0%

Definitely too long. : 5   2   20%

Comments and suggestions

As a course, time is good. In the case of our company, another day to discuss specific issues and consultation on our existing design would have been beneficial to target specific needs that we have a do it right.

How useful was the lecture document?

Can you ask my boss to give me a super fast computer?

A small initial problem when trying to format the SD card. Otherwise, "playing" with a device and a nunchuk was quite fun (and motivating).

I will not be the main person working on yocto. But I can understand design decisions now and can see flows as well.

What part(s) of the course did you like most?

Writing BSP

Working in pairs works very well.

Everything covered was good

This training has provided much knowledge I need for my work.

What part(s) of the course did you like least?

I found that the introduction did not add much to my learning.

None

Sharing a computer between two persons made it a bit hard for the person who did not "own" the keyboard.
